Arson

At approximately 0048 on 07/13/17, Burlington Police were dispatched the area of Hulbush Ln. and West Fairhaven Ave. for the report of a fire. When officers arrived they found a motorhome fully engulfed in flames. Though the motorhome was in a residential neighborhood and close to other vehicles and homes, the fire was able to be contained to just the effected vehicle.

Shortly after Officers arrived, a 32 year old Burlington man was taken into custody. He is believed to be connected with this incident. The Burlington man is currently being held in Skagit County Jail for investigation of Arson 2nd degree. The motives for the arson are unclear at this point and detectives are still investigating this case. Thankfully no one was hurt in the fire and no other homes were damaged. Anyone with information about this case is encouraged to contact Burlington Police at (360)755-0921.
