What do I need to apply for a concealed pistol license?

- Bring a photo ID such as a valid state driver license or ID card.
- Bring your permanent resident card if you are a permanent resident alien.
- If you have an alien firearms license, bring your original passport and United States issued alien number or admission number.
- Bring your original certificate of rehabilitation or firearms restoration orders, if applicable.

How much does it cost to apply?

- The non-refundable fee is $50.75 and can be paid by cash, check, or money order payable to the law enforcement agency where you are getting your license.

Do I need to get a fingerprint or background check?

- Yes. The law enforcement agency will take your fingerprints and conduct a background check before they issue an original CPL.
- The background check process will usually be completed within 30 days from the date you apply.
- If you do not have a valid Washington driver license or Washington state identification card or have not been a resident of Washington state for the prior 90 consecutive days, then the process may take up to 60 days.

Are there any other requirements?

Yes. Your application can be denied if:

- You have a concealed pistol license in a revoked status
- You are under 21 years of age
- You are subject to a court order or injunction concerning the possession of firearms
- You are free on bond or personal recognizance pending trial, appeal, or sentencing for a felony offense
- You have an outstanding warrant for your arrest from any court of competent jurisdiction for a felony or misdemeanor
- You have been ordered to forfeit a firearm within one year before filing a concealed pistol license application

Who do I contact if I have any questions?

- Contact your local law enforcement agency or county sheriff's office.

CAUTION: Although state and local laws do not differ, federal law and state law on the possession of firearms differ. If you are prohibited by federal law from possessing a firearm, you may be prosecuted in federal court. A state license is not a defense to federal prosecution.
